

What Works and What Doesn't Work in Reducing Recidivism

Presented by Edward Latessa, Ph.D.,
University of Cincinnati

Two Opportunities to Attend:

Monday, November 7th 2:30-4:30 PM CT
Tuesday, November 8th 8:30-10:30 AM CT

How to Attend/View the Presentation:

In Person:

Sioux Falls: University Center Room
FADM 145

Via Dakota Digital Network (DDN) Sites:

Aberdeen: NSU Library Room 117

Pierre: Capitol DDN Room A
(Basement)

Rapid City: SDSM&T Public
Meeting Room

Vermillion: USD, Old Main Room
101

South Dakota Public Broadcasting:

Live Webcast: www.sd.net/home/

This presentation will focus on understanding and applying the principles of effective intervention with correctional populations. Learn about the principles of risk, need, treatment and fidelity, the major predictors of criminal behavior, the principles of effective intervention translated into practice and the characteristics of effective programs.

RSVP:

Space is limited for participants in person and at the DDN sites so please RSVP to Rebecca Linneweber at Rebecca.Linneweber@state.sd.us by Friday, November 4th if you plan to attend in person, via DDN sites, or through the live webcast. Additional information regarding the locations of the sites and how to access the live webcast will be sent to confirmed participants.

Please note that Dr. Latessa will also be presenting at the LECC in Sioux Falls on November 8th.