

“Good, Bad, and Similar Looking” Plant Tour

State Noxious Weed

Russian Knapweed

Native Plant

Flodmans thistle

Native Plant

Golden Alexander

Invasive Weed

Wild parsnip

Date: Wednesday, June 12th

Time: 9:00 AM – 3:00 PM

Where: Starting at the Lake Vermillion State Park, West Unit Picnic Area. Enter park through at the West Entrance and it's the first right past the boat ramp. Park entrance is 5 miles south of I-90 at the Montrose Exit 374

Who: Landowners, agency staff, weed control professionals

Cost: FREE

RSVP: REQUIRED in order to arrange logistics

Contact: Joe Blastick jbblastick@tnc.org 605-880-6541

Food: Bring your own lunch.

Transportation: We will carpool as much as possible, and you can also drive yourself.

- Short intro session in the morning
- Most of the day will consist of visiting sites between Lake Vermillion State Park and Wall Lake

Note: Park passes will not be needed for participants in the Plant Tour.

Hosted by: Brookings, Codington, Deuel, and Grant County Weed Inspectors, The Nature Conservancy, SD Game Fish and Parks, and SDSU Extension.