1:00 PM

Steve Olson called the meeting to order

Steve Olson Welcomed 42 members to the 2019 Brookings County Annual Weed & Pest Meeting.

Keynote Speakers: Began with Paul O Johnson he talked about Palmer Amaranth had very good points. Paul was not on the agenda but filled in a 20-minute spot because of another speaker failed to show up.

Brian Gustad: Highway superintendent spoke about snow events and had to leave to clear more roads cleared.

Bob Hill Emergency Management: Spoke he will be on Next Year's agenda it is a good thing for the townships to know who our emergency manager is.

Brenda Sievers with the State Department of AG: spoke on Emerald Ash Borer again another great presentation.

Jeff Grendler Game Fish and Parks officer: spoke on trapping programs with the GF&P again another great speech. He always has interesting things to say.

Marty Stanwick Brookings County Sheriff's Department: Marty talked again about the places the young kids like to hang out and if you see something say something. In addition, Marty mentioned about the meth problems.

Misty Moser was the last to speak she spoke on the changes being made and the different chemical we are using in the 2019 year. Misty also let the townships know that she would go to board meetings and talk about the prices for chemical. Misty also thanked the Commission, the Board Members and surrounding supervisors that are only a phone call away if ever needed.

Door prizes: Names were drawn for door prizes. A thank you also to Kristen at the Brookings County Outdoor Adventure center for everything.

Meeting adjourned at 3:00 PM

Sincerely,

Misty Moser

Brookings County Weed & Pest Supervisor
